AppleSiders Mission

The AppleSiders of Cincinnati is a non-profit computer users group incorporated in the state of Ohio for people interested in learning about Apple computers. The group exists to share technical information, to educate and encourage newcomers to computing, and generally further the art, science and enjoyment of personal computing.

Meetings

General Meetings are held at 7:00 PM on the 3rd Wednesday of each month the Maple Knoll Breese Manor (See Map.) The program will present the latest information on Apple Computers and their use.

Special interest group (SIG) meetings are held throughout the month for members interested in Apple Computer utilization in specific applications. See SIG list.

About The AppleSiders

AppleSiders was founded in 1978, is based in Cincinnati, Ohio, with members from the Tri-State area. The group consists of Apple users ranging in expertise from beginners to professional programmers. The full range of Apple Computers is represented. Membership is about 80 active members. Special interest groups (S.I.G.s) form to explore specific topics. Students, educators, business people, professionals, and hobbyists are what make AppleSiders the great users group that it is.
